2 A student measures the average speed of a cyclist in a race.

Which quantities must she measure?

A the total time taken to complete the race and the time taken for the cyclist to reach her highest speed

B the total time taken to complete the race and the total distance travelled by the cyclist at her highest speed

C the total time taken to complete the race and the total distance travelled by the cyclist

D the time taken to reach her highest speed and the total distance travelled by the cyclist