21 A thin converging lens in a camera produces a real image on a photo-sensitive surface, as shown.

At which position is the image of the top of the object formed?

