35 The half-life of carbon-14 is 5700 years.

An object containing carbon-14 has a count rate of 100 counts / minute when it is first formed. The graph shows how the count rate decreases over time.

Which point on the graph corresponds to a time 11 400 years after the formation of the object?

