

- 8 An experiment is performed to measure the acceleration of free fall g . A body falls between two fixed points. Four measurements are taken.

Which measurement is not required for the calculation of g ?

- A the distance fallen by the body
- B the initial velocity of the body
- C the mass of the body
- D the time taken for the body to fall