18 The range of audible frequencies for elephants is 10 Hz to 12 000 Hz, and for horses is 55 Hz to 33 000 Hz.

Which statement about the range of audible frequencies for a healthy human ear is correct?

A The human ear can hear all sounds heard by both elephants and horses.

B The human ear can hear all sounds heard by elephants but not all those heard by horses.

C The human ear can hear all sounds heard by horses but not all those heard by elephants.

D The human ear cannot hear all sounds heard by elephants nor those heard by horses.