6 A car is moving in a straight line on a level road. Its engine provides a forward force on the car. A second force of equal size acts on the car in the opposite direction.

Which statement describes what happens?

A The car changes direction.

B The car moves at a constant speed.

C The car slows down.

D The car speeds up.