27 The principle of superposition states that a certain quantity is added when two or more waves meet at a point.

What is this quantity?

A amplitude

B displacement

C intensity

D wavelength