25 A stationary wave is formed by two progressive waves travelling in opposite directions along the same line of travel.

Which statement about the two progressive waves is not correct?

A They must have a constant phase difference.

B They must have the same frequency.

C They must have the same wavelength.

D They must travel at the same speed.