7 Newton's third law describes two forces that are equal in magnitude and form a pair.

Which description of the two forces in such a pair is not correct?

A They act in opposite directions.

B They act on different objects.

C They are the same type of force.

D They cause an object to be in equilibrium.