26 Two waves of the same type overlap.

When does the principle of superposition apply?

A always

B only when the waves have the same amplitude

C only when the waves have the same frequency

D only when the waves travel in opposite directions