23 Which statement about progressive transverse and longitudinal waves is correct?

A Particles in a transverse wave have fixed equilibrium positions but those in longitudinal waves do not.

B Transverse waves can be polarised but longitudinal waves cannot.

C Transverse waves transfer energy but longitudinal waves do not.

D Two-source interference can be demonstrated with transverse waves but not with longitudinal waves.