38 Which statement about the alpha-particle scattering experiment provides evidence for the existence of the nucleus?

A A tiny proportion of the alpha-particles are deflected through large angles.

B Slower alpha-particles are deflected through larger angles.

C The kinetic energies of the deflected alpha-particles are unchanged.

D The number of alpha-particles deflected depends on the thickness of the foil.