10 Two objects move towards each other along the same straight line.

After colliding, the two objects stick together and are stationary.

Which statement must be correct?

A The total kinetic energy of the two objects does not change during the collision.

B The total momentum of the two objects before the collision is zero.

C The two objects have equal mass.

D The two objects have the same speed before the collision.