7 A man stands in a lift that is accelerating vertically downwards, as shown.

Which statement describes the force exerted by the man on the floor?

A It is equal to the weight of the man.

B It is greater than the force exerted by the floor on the man.

C It is less than the force exerted by the floor on the man.

D It is less than the weight of the man.