17 Which statement represents the principle of conservation of energy?

A Energy cannot be used faster than it is created.

B The supply of energy is limited, so energy must be conserved.

C The total energy in a closed system is constant.

D The total energy input to a system is equal to the useful energy output.