1 Which statement about physical quantities is correct?

A A physical quantity does not always have a magnitude or a unit.

B A physical quantity must always have a magnitude but does not always have a unit.

C A physical quantity must always have a unit but does not always have a magnitude.

D A physical quantity must always have a magnitude and a unit.