

17 An object is falling in a uniform gravitational field.

Which two quantities are sufficient to calculate the change in gravitational potential energy?

- A mass and acceleration of free fall
- B mass and change in vertical displacement
- C weight and acceleration of free fall
- D weight and change in vertical displacement

18 The points X, Y and Z are on a rough horizontal surface