

- 29 The equation $n\lambda = d \sin \theta$ can be used with a diffraction grating to find the wavelength of visible light.

Which quantity is not correct for use in this equation?

	symbol	quantity
A	d	distance from grating to screen
B	λ	wavelength of light
C	n	order of intensity maximum
D	θ	diffraction angle of intensity maximum