21 A tank contains water. Ripples are produced on the surface of the water. Refraction is observed.

What causes the ripples to refract?

A The cold water in the tank is replaced by warm water.

B The ripples change speed as they move from deep to shallow water.

C The ripples hit the wall of the tank.

D The ripples pass through a narrow gap.