6 An object moves at constant speed around a circular path.

Which statement is correct?

A A resultant force acts on the object outwards from the centre of the circle.

B A resultant force acts on the object in the direction it is travelling.

C A resultant force acts on the object towards the centre of the circle.

D There is no resultant force acting on the object because it is moving at constant speed.